

Liturgy at Home

St. James' Anglican Church

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost
9:00 am, November 15, 2020

Welcome

We acknowledge our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Coast Salish Peoples.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy for use at home," which will continue for the time being in parallel with the Sung Mass at 10:30 am in church.

For the time being that will be the only public service in St. James'. Nonetheless, the Church's life of prayer and intercession continues. Those who live close to St. James' may hear the Angelus ring from the tower: this is an audible sign that the Church is praying for the parish, the DTES, the medical services, and for a swift resolution to this pandemic.

The Daily Office will be said online via Zoom at the regular times: contact details on the website, and at the end of this bulletin. The Mass will continue to be offered regularly, even though the doors may be locked.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 9:00 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca, 604-685-2532.

PRAYER FOR A PANDEMIC

May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.
May we who have no risk factors
remember those most vulnerable.
May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.
May we who have to cancel our trips remember those that have no safe place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.
As fear grips our country, let us choose love.
During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

A Reflection

How shall I sing that majesty
Which angels do admire?
Let dust in dust and silence lie;
Sing, sing, ye heavenly choir.
Thousands of thousands stand around
Thy throne, O God most high;
Ten thousand times ten thousand sound
Thy praise; but who am I?

Thy brightness unto them appears,
Whilst I thy footsteps trace;
A sound of God comes to my ears,
But they behold thy face.
They sing because thou art their Sun;
Lord, send a beam on me;
For where heaven is but once begun
There alleluyas be.

Enlighten with faith's light my heart,
Inflame it with love's fire;
Then shall I sing and bear a part
With that celestial choir.
I shall, I fear, be dark and cold,
With all my fire and light;
Yet when thou dost accept their gold,
Lord, treasure up my mite.

How great a being, Lord, is thine,
Which doth all beings keep!
Thy knowledge is the only line
To sound so vast a deep.
Thou art a sea without a shore,
A sun without a sphere;
Thy time is now and evermore,
Thy place is everywhere.

John Mason (1646?-1694), New English Hymnal #373

Zoom Worship

For all of us, sharing in Liturgy at Home via Zoom is a new and evolving experience. We are all on a learning curve! The technology enables us, I think, to create a sense of community as together we offer our worship to God. It also has challenges and limitations.

One such challenge is that everyone's internet runs at a different speed: this means that if we try to say or sing something together with all the microphones switched on, the result is not edifying unison but a cacophony. For this reason we ask everyone to keep microphones on mute, unless one is reading. Please feel free to make the responses aloud at home, but not "on the air." Designated person(s) will make the responses on everyone's behalf.

We are exploring how we may include more music, but we have not yet discovered an effective way. We are grateful to Gerald for his commentary and links to music being circulated with The Thurible and on the website.

We offer this Liturgy at Home in union with the clergy offering the Sunday Mass in St. James', on behalf of the parish, the DTES, and for deliverance from this pandemic.

Fr. Kevin is grateful to all who are making this Liturgy at Home possible, and for the encouraging response and helpful feedback.

Opening Rite

INVOCATION

Gathering together on the traditional, ancestral and unceded lands of the Tsleil-Waututh “People of the Inlet”, the Musqueam “People of the River Grass”, and the Squamish “Mother of the Wind”, we meet

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

HYMN VERSE

Awake and sing, with praises strong,
in psalm and hymn and spirit-song.
Let love our words and works renew with all that’s good and right and true.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

God the Father forgives us in Christ and heals us by the Holy Spirit.
Let us therefore put away all anger and bitterness,
all slander and malice,
and confess our sins to God our redeemer.

God be gracious to us and bless us,
and make your face shine upon us:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

May your ways be known on the earth,
your saving power among the nations:
Christ, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.

You, Lord, have made known your salvation,
and reveal your justice in the sight of the nations:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and keep us in eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Glory be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
that takest away the sin of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sin of the world,
receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost,
+art most high in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

you sent your Son Jesus Christ to be the light of the world.

Free us from all that darkens and ensnares us,

and bring us to eternal light and joy;

through the power of him who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Zephaniah.

Be silent before the Lord God! For the day of the Lord is at hand; the Lord has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests. At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, 'The Lord will not do good, nor will he do harm.' Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them. The great day of the Lord is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the Lord is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements. I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the Lord, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the Lord's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Zephaniah 1:7, 12-18

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Antiphon: Teach us, O Lord, to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born, from age to age you are God.
You turn us back to the dust and say, "Go back, O child of earth."
For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past and like a watch in the night.
You sweep us away like a dream; we fade away suddenly like the grass.
In the morning it is green and flourishes; in the evening it is dried up and withered.
For we consume away in your displeasure;
we are afraid because of your wrathful indignation.
Our iniquities you have set before you,
and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

Antiphon: Teach us, O Lord, to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

Psalm 90:1-8, 12

SECOND READING

A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia.

I will praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God all my life long.

Alleluia.

GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

Matthew 25:14-30

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

As we are unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at this time, meditate quietly for a moment on these words of Jesus from St. John 6:

Clergy Notes

José Luis, sacristan, server, and co-ordinator of the Zoom Daily Office, is in the process of discerning vocation to the priesthood. A parish discernment group, chaired by John Daniel, is working with him. This morning, as part of this process, José Luis will give the address in the liturgies. Please remember José Luis and the discernment group in your prayers over the coming months.

Trustees have decided that in the current Covid-19 pandemic it is more appropriate to have a low-key approach to Stewardship Renewal this year, recognizing the challenging circumstances in which we (but also the parish!) all find ourselves. I shall be sending out a letter with more detail in the coming week. Trustees are keen to renew their thanks to everyone for their continued generous giving to the parish in these difficult times.

As many of you are aware, our Liturgy at Home last Sunday had the distressing experience of a “Zoom-bomb”, which required us to close down the service. I am able to report that this week we have heightened our security settings, and have put steps in place to address this quickly should it happen again. It is helpful, I think, to remind ourselves that this is the first time anything untoward has happened in over seven months. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Every blessing,
Fr. Kevin

Notices

REGULAR SERVICE TIMES

9:00 am Zoom Liturgy at Home

10:30 am Sung Mass in Church (Please notify office@stjames.bc.ca of intention to be present by noon on Friday each week.)

CHRISTMAS SERVICES: ADVANCE NOTICE

Christmas Eve 10:30 pm | Midnight Liturgy at Home, via ZOOM

Christmas Day 9:00 am | Dawn Liturgy at Home, via ZOOM

10:30 am | Sung Mass of the Day, in church

While it is disappointing not to hold Midnight Mass in church, Trustees feel that it is not responsible to invite people to church at night in the current circumstances.

Also, as Midnight Mass is so popular, it is likely that we should have to turn people away at the door owing to the 50 persons restriction.

ST. MARK'S GOSPEL

Wednesday, Nov. 25, at 6.00 pm. We shall read through (on Zoom) the whole of the Gospel in preparation for the new Liturgical Year B, when the Sunday Gospels will be taken mainly from St. Mark. Please let the office know if you are interested in attending this. All are welcome.

"HOT SOX" FOR THE MISSION TO SEAFARERS

Each Christmastide chaplains from the Mission distribute gifts of work socks and toques to seafarers who are in port. This year, due to Covid-19, rather than collecting socks from parishioners, we are seeking donations toward a bulk purchase of St. James' "hot sox" to be added to those collected from parishioners around the diocese. Thank you.

WHITE RIBBON & MOOSE HIDE CAMPAIGNS

The White Ribbon Campaign was founded in 1991 as a direct response to the massacre at Ecole' Polytechnique of the same year. The white ribbon is worn by men who challenge negative, outdated concepts of manhood and want to embrace the potential they have to be a part of positive change. The mission is to raise awareness but also to pledge that violence against women and girls will not be tolerated, protected, or silenced. For more info go to: <https://www.whiteribbon.ca>

In 2011, an Indigenous man, Paul Lacerte, and his daughter Raven, were hunting moose close to the “Highway of Tears,” where so many Indigenous women and girls have gone missing and been murdered. The Moose Hide Campaign was his response to so many lives being lost to violence. Since its inception hundreds of thousands squares of moose hide have been distributed across Canada in an effort to raise awareness and show solidarity. For more info go to: <https://moosehidecampaign.ca> On November 15 & 22, the Mothers’ Union will provide white ribbons and moose hide squares to be worn for sixteen days starting November 25 until December 10. They will be in baskets in the narthex. Please feel free to take one for friends and family to help raise awareness. Thank you, St. James’ Mothers Union

THE HOLY ROSARY

On the last Friday of the month at 6 pm join St. James’ parishioners in praying the Holy Rosary. Join by Zoom: Meeting ID: 969 0827 4159. No password required. Or join by Telephone: 778 907 2071. Access the texts here: <http://bit.ly/stjamesrosary> If you would like to help lead a St. James’ Rosary please fill out this questionnaire: <http://bit.ly/rosaryleaders>

GIVING

Thank you to all those who are giving generously to St James’ in these difficult times. Your ongoing support is much appreciated.

Although we are not all meeting as a congregation in the church, the ongoing running costs of St. James’, some $1800 per day, continue.

If usually you give in the Weekly Offering Envelopes, please consider using the credit card Donate option on the HOME page or go to the GIVING page of the St. James’ website: www.stjames.bc.ca

Alternatively, if you do not already give by PAD (Pre-Authorised Donation) and are able to do so, please email the Parish Office for a form. More information is available on the Diocese of New Westminster here.
