

Liturgy at Home

St. James' Anglican Church

Second Sunday of Advent
10:30 am, December 6, 2020

Welcome

We acknowledge our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Coast Salish Peoples.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy for use at home," which for the time being will be the only public service at St. James'.

Nonetheless, the Church's life of prayer and intercession continues. Those who live close to St. James' may hear the Angelus ring from the tower: this is an audible sign that the Church is praying for the parish, the DTES, the medical services, and for a swift resolution to this pandemic.

The Daily Office will be said online via Zoom at the regular times: contact details on the website, and at the end of this bulletin. The Mass will continue to be offered regularly, even though the doors may be locked.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 10:30 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca, 604-685-2532.

PRAYER FOR A PANDEMIC

May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.
May we who have no risk factors
remember those most vulnerable.
May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.
May we who have to cancel our trips
remember those that have no safe place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.
As fear grips our country, let us choose love.
During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

A Reflection

The function of prayer is not to establish a routine; it is to establish a relationship with the God who is in relationship with us always. The function of times of prayer, then, is not to have us say prayers; it is to enable our lives to become a prayer outside of prayer, to become “pure of heart,” one with God, centred in the truth that is Truth and the power that is Power and the love that is Love.

The function of prayer is to bring us in touch with ourselves, as well. To the ancients, “tears of compunction” were the sign of a soul that knew its limits, faced its sins, accepted its needs, and lived in hope.

To live in church is not necessarily a sign of holiness.

To live always under the influence of Scriptures and to live in the breath of the Spirit is.

Sr. Joan Chittister, O.S.B. (excerpt from commentary on St. Benedict's Rule)

Zoom Worship

For all of us, sharing in Liturgy at Home via Zoom is a new and evolving experience. We are all on a learning curve! The technology enables us, I think, to create a sense of community as together we offer our worship to God. It also has challenges and limitations.

One such challenge is that everyone's internet runs at a different speed: this means that if we try to say or sing something together with all the microphones switched on, the result is not edifying unison but a cacophony. For this reason we ask everyone to keep microphones on mute, unless one is reading. Please feel free to make the responses aloud at home, but not "on the air." Designated person(s) will make the responses on everyone's behalf.

We are exploring how we may include more music, but we have not yet discovered an effective way. We are grateful to Gerald for his commentary and links to music being circulated with The Thurible and on the website.

We offer this Liturgy at Home in union with the clergy offering the Sunday Mass in St. James', on behalf of the parish, the DTES, and for deliverance from this pandemic.

Fr. Kevin is grateful to all who are making this Liturgy at Home possible, and for the encouraging response and helpful feedback.

announces that the Lord is nigh;
come then and hearken, for he brings glad tidings from the King of kings.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

God the Father forgives us in Christ and heals us by the Holy Spirit.

Let us therefore put away all anger and bitterness,

all slander and malice,

and confess our sins to God our redeemer.

Cantor(s)

Lord Jesus, you came to gather the nations into the peace of your kingdom:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Cantor(s)

Lord Jesus, you come in word and sacrament to strengthen us in holiness:

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Cantor(s)

Lord Jesus, you will come in glory
with salvation for your people:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins, and keep us in eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

who sent your servant John the Baptist

to prepare your people to welcome the Messiah,

inspire us, the ministers and stewards of your truth,

to turn our disobedient hearts to you,

that when the Christ shall come again to be our judge,

we may stand with confidence before his glory;

who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Isaiah.

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins. A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken." A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

Isaiah 40:1-11

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Antiphon: You have been gracious to your land, O Lord; you have forgiven the iniquity of your people.

You have been gracious to your land, O Lord,
you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
You have forgiven the iniquity of your people
and blotted out all their sins.

I will listen to what the Lord God is saying,
for he is speaking peace to his faithful people
and to those who turn their hearts to him.

Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him,
that his glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall spring up from the earth,
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

The Lord will indeed grant prosperity,
and our land will yield its increase.

Righteousness shall go before him,
and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

Antiphon: You have been gracious to your land, O Lord; you have forgiven the iniquity of your people.

Psalms 85:1-2, 8-13

SECOND READING

A reading from the Second Letter of Peter.

But do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed. Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire? But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home. Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish; and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation.

2 Peter 3:8-15a

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia.

Lord, you were favourable to your land; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

Alleluia.

GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, "See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way; the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,'" John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

Mark 1:1-8

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Mother of him who thee from nothing made,
sinking we strive and call to thee for aid.
Oh by that joy which Gabriel brought to thee,
thou Virgin, first and last, let us thy mercy see.

Clergy Notes

As many of you know, I have been learning sacred music with Gerald these past months, and of course it should come as no surprise that it has been a truly blessed experience. Not only because Gerald is an extraordinarily talented musician and a genuinely gracious and wonderful human, but also because the music has entered my life, my heart, and my soul in a way I never anticipated it could.

It's not that I didn't appreciate music before; it is for me as it is for most of us - an integral part of both secular and religious life that helps us express things mere words cannot. I also revere the Benedictine tradition that informs our Anglican faith and have long understood intellectually that sacred music - particularly chant - makes up a great part of that.

But none of that prepared me for how deeply the music would transform me interiorly. With each Psalm and antiphon; each Alleluia; each Marian antiphon I learned, I have gained new expression for my love of God and a way to carry my devotion and prayer into the everyday tasks of life that were otherwise barren before. I have found myself singing while doing dishes, in between Zoom meetings, when I awaken and before I go to bed. I sing when deadlines are looming and sometimes when I should be doing other things. Sacred singing is a magical practice that has brought me immense peace, comfort, and joy when everything else is chaos all around me.

St. Paul, in his first letter to the Thessalonians, exhorts believers to "pray without ceasing" and Psalm 119 exclaims, "Seven times a day will I praise you!" These Scriptures are amongst those that informed the practices which shaped monastic life, and eventually became our Daily Office. In our modern busy lives that are - even amidst a pandemic - so full that prayer could easily become an afterthought, we might look to our Benedictine predecessors for inspiration, and wonder how we might discover new ways to praise God continually while we go about all the other tasks that life demands of us.

As we approach the second Sunday of Advent - a time when we are supposed to be still, patient, and wait for the coming of Christ, I hope we may all find more peaceful moments away from the busy-ness of our schedules to stop and praise God, and perhaps, inspired by our Benedictine heritage, invite the psalms and sacred music to shape our prayer and sanctify the work of our hands.

COMING HOME SOCIETY ANNUAL NEWSLETTER

The Coming Home Society's annual newsletter is online here. Please read about the amazing healing work being done as we partner, especially on behalf of St. James' and the Diocese, with Warriors Against Violence Society and Urban Native Youth Association. "Warriors" work with families and individuals who are struggling with anger rooted in the Residential School system. The system left Aboriginal peoples feeling worthless and powerless. The residual anger often results in domestic violence. "Warriors" help people to understand and manage their emotions and reclaim the traditional Aboriginal values of honour and respect for all.

Urban Native Youth Association's programs connect youth to their culture and its values, spirituality, and traditional knowledge and skills. These teachings support and strengthen youth who are growing up with the legacy of trauma, and family and community breakdown, left by the Residential School system.

We regret that due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we cannot have the food and clothing drive that usually do at St. James' during Advent. But please read about, and support this work with prayer, and as you are able. It means so much to these organizations to know that the Church cares about and upholds our First Nations people on their healing journeys.

PWRDF WORLD OF GIFTS CATALOGUE

For a great way to support PWRDF (The Primate's World Relief and Development Fund) and its wonderful partner organizations as we move into the Advent and Christmas seasons give a gift from the World of Gifts catalog which may be found online at www.pwrdf.org then clicking on "World of Gifts". Christmas cards are also available online. PWRDF is grateful to members of our parish for their ongoing support.
