St. James' Anglican Church

Fourth Sunday in Lent – Mothering Sunday
10:30 am, March 14, 2021

Welcome

---

We acknowledge our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Coast Salish Peoples.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy for use at home," which for the time being will be the only public service at St. James'.

Nonetheless, the Church's life of prayer and intercession continues. Those who live close to St. James' may hear the Angelus ring from the tower: this is an audible sign that the Church is praying for the parish, the DTES, the medical services, and for a swift resolution to this pandemic.

The Daily Office will be said online via Zoom at the regular times: contact details on the website, and at the end of this bulletin. The Mass will continue to be offered regularly, even though the doors may be locked.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 10:30 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca, 604-685-2532.

PRAYER FOR A PANDEMIC

May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.
May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.
May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.
May we who have to cancel our trips remember those that have no safe place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.
As fear grips our country, let us choose love.
During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

LITANY OF AN EXPIANT

JESU, Creator,
Recreate and renew me.

Jesu, Saviour,
Save me from sin,
Save me from self.

Jesu, High Priest,
Pity me,
Plead for me,
Pardon and purify me.

Jesu, Prophet,
Waken and warn me.

Jesu, King,
Rule me.

Jesu, the Way,
Jesu, my friend,
Go with me always.

Jesu, the Truth,
Teach me, counsel me,
Make me all true.

Jesu, true Light,
Scatter my darkness.

Jesu, true Bread,
    Strengthen my weakness.

Jesu, good Shepherd,
    Lead me and feed me.

Jesu, the Life,
    Live in me always,
        that I may adore thee,
        my Lord and my God,
            evermore. Amen.

From My God my Glory, Eric Milner-White, sometime Dean of York

Zoom Worship

For all of us, sharing in Liturgy at Home via Zoom is a new and evolving experience. We are all on a learning curve! The technology enables us, I think, to create a sense of community as together we offer our worship to God. It also has challenges and limitations.

One such challenge is that everyone's internet runs at a different speed: this means that if we try to say or sing something together with all the microphones switched on, the result is not edifying unison but a cacophony. For this reason we ask everyone to keep microphones on mute, unless one is reading. Please feel free to make the responses aloud at home, but not "on the air." Designated person(s) will make the responses on everyone's behalf.

We are exploring how we may include more music, but we have not yet discovered an effective way. We are grateful to Gerald for his commentary and links to music being circulated with The Thurible and on the website.

We offer this Liturgy at Home in union with the clergy offering the Sunday Mass in St. James', on behalf of the parish, the DTES, and for deliverance from this pandemic.

Fr. Kevin is grateful to all who are making this Liturgy at Home possible, and for the encouraging response and helpful feedback.

INVOCATION

Gathering together on the traditional, ancestral and unceded lands of the Tsleil-Waututh “People of the Inlet”, the Musqueam “People of the River Grass”, and the Squamish “Mother of the Wind”, we meet

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

HYMN VERSE

When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

God the Father forgives us in Christ and heals us by the Holy Spirit.
Let us therefore put away all anger and bitterness, all slander and malice, and confess our sins to God our redeemer.

Cantors:

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness
and cleanse me from my sin:

Kyrie, eleison.

Make me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me:

Christe, eleison.

Cast me not away from your presence and take not your holy spirit from me:

Kyrie, eleison.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and keep us in eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Gracious Father,

your blessed Son Jesus Christ came from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world.

As we long for this bread,

may he live in us, and we in him,

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Numbers.

From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way. The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food." Then the Lord sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned by speaking against the Lord and against you; pray to the Lord to take away the serpents from us." So Moses prayed for the people. And the Lord said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live." So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Numbers 21:4-9

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Antiphon: Give thanks to the Lord for his mercy, and the wonders he does for his children.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, and his mercy endures for ever.

Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

He gathered them out of the lands; from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.

Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; they were afflicted because of their sins.

They abhorred all manner of food and drew near to death's door.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

He sent forth his word and healed them and saved them from the grave.

Let them give thanks to the Lord for his mercy and the wonders he does for his children.

Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving and tell of his acts with shouts of joy.

Antiphon: Give thanks to the Lord for his mercy, and the wonders he does for his children.

Psalm 107:1-3, 17-22

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Ephesians.

You were dead through the trespasses and sins in which you once lived, following the course of this world, following the ruler of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work among those who are disobedient. All of us once lived among them in the passions of our flesh, following the desires of flesh and senses, and we were by nature children of wrath, like everyone else. But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ - by grace you have been saved - and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God - not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.

Ephesians 2:1-10

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

TRACT

Out of the depth I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life. For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life. Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God."

John 3:14-21

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

HOMILY

Deacon Joyce Locht

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Let us affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

Though he was divine,
he did not cling to equality with God,
but made himself nothing.

Taking the form of a slave,
he was born in human likeness.

He humbled himself
and was obedient to death,
even the death of the cross.

Therefore God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:

that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,

and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Celebrant:

In peace let us pray to the Lord:

Intercessor:

For Christians everywhere in this season of Lent, that we may walk more faithfully in the way of Christ:

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury;

- for the Iglesia Anglicana de Chile;
- for Linda – our Primate; Lynne our Metropolitan; and John our Bishop;
- for Archbishop Mark, and the Indigenous Peoples in the Diocese of Huron; and for Bishop Brent and our partner diocese of Northern Philippines
- for the Archdeacons of our Diocese;
- and for our parish of St. James:

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For the leaders of the nations, and all in authority at this time of crisis; for the World Health Organization and for the medical profession, on the front line and in research; for an effective distribution of vaccine around the world:

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

That by your power, wars, famine, and pandemic may cease through all the earth; for the peoples of Myanmar, Ethiopia and Yemen:

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For all mothers and carers on this Mothering Sunday, in thanksgiving for all gifts of care and dedication; for all whose home and family life is fraught and difficult; and for the work and witness of the Mothers Union:

Lord, in your mercy,

Hear our prayer."

For all who suffer in mind, body, or spirit; for the victims of our society; and for all those who minister to them - for all those suffering from Covid-19; also Eric Bristow; Linda; Karen; Kenny Landherr; John Fisher; Aaron Thomas; Lyndon; Julius Kristoff; Martin Smith; Sister Mary; Daniel; Bev Coles; Gail; Trevor Fisher & Cara, Gianfranco Vestri; Theresa Young; and Doug Smith,

And in our Street Outreach for - Dale; Kimberly; Sandy; John; Lloyd; Highflower; Tony; and Frank,

Lord in your mercy,

Hear our prayer.

For the recently departed – all victims of Covid-19; and Andrea Fisher,

And for all those whose anniversary of death we commemorate at this time – Frank Avery; Dakota Wildeman McNeil; William Harney; Greg Murphy; Mary Jenkins; and Clinton Tobin, +Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

And may light perpetual shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

Celebrant:

God of mercy and compassion,
your Word calls us home to faith and love.

Accept our prayers with all we offer you this day,
in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

Amen.

Spiritual Communion

---

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: grant us thy peace.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

As we are unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at this time, meditate quietly for a moment on these words of Jesus from St. John 6:

“I am the Bread of Life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

“O come to my heart, Lord Jesus. There is room in my heart for thee.”

HYMN

Jesus, Lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high:
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

Concluding Rite

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.
Giver of life,
you enlighten all who come into the world.
Fill our hearts with the splendour of your grace, that we may perfectly love you and worthily praise your holy name, through Jesus Christ the Lord.

Amen.

THE GRACE

Christ give us grace to grow in holiness, to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow him.

Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all evermore.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

AVE REGINA CAELORUM

Hail, Queen of heaven, beyond compare, to whom the angels homage pay.
Hail, Root of Jesse, Gate of light, which opened for the world's new day.

Rejoice, O Virgin unsurpassed, in whom our ransom was begun.
For all your loving children pray,
to Christ our Saviour, and your Son.

POSTLUDE

Ciacona in E minor (BuxWV 160) – Dietrich Buxtehude

Clergy Notes

---

As a particular focus of Lent is a return to Prayer, I thought it might be helpful to remind ourselves of some different patterns of private prayer, drawn from the Church's rich treasury.

Many find it helps to set aside a particular time for prayer each day, say 15 minutes initially. Find somewhere quiet, where you can be focussed and still. You may wish to light a candle, and to have a crucifix or an icon close by; if you are able, you may care to burn some incense. Spend the first few moments breathing carefully, laying aside the busy-ness and cares of the day, letting yourself come consciously into the presence of God.

This week I offer a model of imaginative prayer and reflection, a particular pattern drawn from the practice of St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits. Those who like to think in pictures and images often find this way of praying helpful.

Choose a bible reading: as with lectio divina, it may be the Gospel for the day. Gospel passages are especially appropriate for this reflection. When you have entered the stillness, read slowly through the passage two or three times. Imagine the scene in your mind's eye. Then allow yourself to become part of the scene, the drama. If you are drawn to a particular character, see yourself as that person: what does it feel like, how might you respond to the situation, how is God speaking to you?

Take, for example, the encounter between Jesus, Martha and Mary, (Luke 10.38-42), where Martha does all the work while Mary sits at Jesus' feet. If you sense an affinity with Martha, how would you feel in the situation: angry, frustrated, put out? You wanted to listen to Jesus too . . . How would you respond to Jesus' words, seemingly approving of Mary? Conversely, what would it feel like to be Mary, able to sit listening to Jesus? How would you respond to your sister's anger, and Jesus' response?

Then, still in character, reflect on how you relate to people today? How is Jesus prompting you to behave with those closest to you? Then read through the passage once again. You may be guided to make a resolution, or a special prayer.

Every blessing on this Laetare, Refreshment, Sunday, Fr. Kevin
