St. James' Anglican Church

Fifth Sunday in Lent
10:30 am, March 21, 2021

Welcome

We acknowledge our presence on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Coast Salish Peoples.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy for use at home," which for the time being will be the only public service at St. James'.

Nonetheless, the Church's life of prayer and intercession continues. Those who live close to St. James' may hear the Angelus ring from the tower: this is an audible sign that the Church is praying for the parish, the DTES, the medical services, and for a swift resolution to this pandemic.

The Daily Office will be said online via Zoom at the regular times: contact details on the website, and at the end of this bulletin. The Mass will continue to be offered regularly, even though the doors may be locked.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 10:30 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca, 604-685-2532.

PRAYER FOR A PANDEMIC

May we who are merely inconvenienced
remember those whose lives are at stake.
May we who have no risk factors remember those most vulnerable.
May we who have the luxury of working from home remember those who must choose between preserving their health or making their rent.
May we who have the flexibility to care for our children when their schools close remember those who have no options.
May we who have to cancel our trips remember those that have no safe place to go.
May we who are losing our margin money in the tumult of the economic market remember those who have no margin at all.
As fear grips our country, let us choose love.
During this time when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other, let us yet find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbors. Amen.

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

CONVERSION

OLD THINGS are passed away:

all things are become new.

God has broken down the bars of the gates;

there's no prison more, no fetters, no barriers.

One thing I know; whereas I was blind, now I see.

I KNOW THAT I HAVE PASSED FROM DEATH UNTO LIFE.

Whichever way I look,

it is love that fills all things,

the love of God, God who is love.

I am astonished, I am free, I sing for joy.

I KNOW THAT I HAVE PASSED FROM DEATH UNTO LIFE.

No more am I enclosed in myself;

no more feed on the imaginations of pride nor brood on the slights to it:

gone are self-conscious terrors and timidities, gone the aimlessness and petty judgments.

I KNOW THAT I HAVE PASSED FROM DEATH UNTO LIFE.

Mine, suddenly, is fellowship with all people;

mine, wonderfully, fellowship with God, who speaks, quickens, reveals, transforms;

mine the company of the redeemed in Christ, who cry to their new-born family –

“Now are you light in the Lord;

walk as children of light.

Arise, shine! your might is passed;

the glory of the Lord has risen upon you,

God is your glory, your life, your all.”

From My God my Glory, Eric Milner-White, sometime Dean of York

Zoom Worship

For all of us, sharing in Liturgy at Home via Zoom is a new and evolving experience. We are all on a learning curve! The technology enables us, I think, to create a sense of community as together we offer our worship to God. It also has challenges and limitations.

One such challenge is that everyone's internet runs at a different speed: this means that if we try to say or sing something together with all the microphones switched on, the result is not edifying unison but a cacophony. For this reason we ask everyone to keep microphones on mute, unless one is reading. Please feel free to make the responses aloud at home, but not "on the air." Designated person(s) will make the responses on everyone's behalf.

We are exploring how we may include more music, but we have not yet discovered an effective way. We are grateful to Gerald for his commentary and links to music being circulated with The Thurible and on the website.

We offer this Liturgy at Home in union with the clergy offering the Sunday Mass in St. James', on behalf of the parish, the DTES, and for deliverance from this pandemic.

Fr. Kevin is grateful to all who are making this Liturgy at Home possible, and for the encouraging response and helpful feedback.

INVOCATION

Gathering together on the traditional, ancestral and unceded lands of the Tsleil-Waututh “People of the Inlet”, the Musqueam “People of the River Grass”, and the Squamish “Mother of the Wind”, we meet

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

HYMN VERSE

He comes to us as one unknown,
a breath unseen, unheard;
as though within a heart of stone,
or shriveled seed in darkness sown,
a pulse of being stirred,
a pulse of being stirred.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

God the Father forgives us in Christ and heals us by the Holy Spirit.
Let us therefore put away all anger and bitterness, all slander and malice, and confess our sins to God our redeemer.

Cantors:

O God, you know my foolishness and my sins are not hidden from you:

Kyrie, eleison.

Let not the flood overwhelm me
nor the depths swallow me up;
let not the pit shut its mouth upon me:

Christe, eleison.

Hear me, O Lord, as your loving kindness is good;
turn to me as your compassion is great:

Kyrie, eleison.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and keep us in eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Most merciful God,

by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ,

you created humanity anew.

May the power of his victorious cross transform those who turn in faith to him, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Jeremiah 31:31-34

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Antiphon: Blessed are you, O Lord; instruct me in your statutes.

How shall a young man cleanse his way? By keeping to your words.

With my whole heart I seek you; let me not stray from your commandments.

I treasure your promise in my heart, that I may not sin against you.

Blessed are you, O Lord; instruct me in your statutes.

With my lips will I recite all the judgements of your mouth.

I have taken greater delight in the way of your decrees than in all manner of riches.

I will meditate on your commandments and give attention to your ways.

My delight is in your statutes; I will not forget your word.

Antiphon: Blessed are you, O Lord; instruct me in your statutes.

Psalms 119:9-16

SECOND READING

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:5-10

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

TRACT

"Often have they attacked me from my youth" – let Israel now say.
The Lord is righteous; he has cut the cords of the wicked.

GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour. Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say – 'Father, save me from this hour?' No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

John 12:20-33

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

HOMILY

Deacon Amanda Ruston

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Let us affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

Though he was divine,
he did not cling to equality with God,
but made himself nothing.

Taking the form of a slave,
he was born in human likeness.

He humbled himself
and was obedient to death, even the death of the cross.

Therefore God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:

that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,

and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion

---

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: grant us thy peace.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

As we are unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at this time, meditate quietly for a moment on these words of Jesus from St. John 6:

“I am the Bread of Life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

“O come to my heart, Lord Jesus. There is room in my heart for thee.”

HYMN

O generous love! that flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh against the foe,
should strive and should prevail.

Concluding Rite

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.
Merciful God,
you call us to your table
and long to feed us with the bread of life.
Draw us and all people to your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

THE GRACE

Christ crucified draw us to himself, that we may find in him a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope,
and the assurance of sins forgiven.
Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all evermore.
Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

AVE REGINA CAELORUM

Hail, Queen of heaven, beyond compare, to whom the angels homage pay.

Hail, Root of Jesse, Gate of light, which opened for the world's new day.

Rejoice, O Virgin unsurpassed, in whom our ransom was begun.
For all your loving children pray,
to Christ our Saviour, and your Son.

Clergy Notes

Passiontide begins today, as our focus turns away from Jesus' time of temptation, prayer and fasting in the wilderness towards his entry into Jerusalem, his last days and last meal with his friends, his betrayal and arrest, his trial, condemnation and crucifixion. We commit ourselves anew to walking with Jesus on the Way of the Cross, sharing with him in his suffering and that of the world, that we might share with him too in the joy of the resurrection.

This year Covid-19 compels us for the second time to celebrate this great mystery of our salvation online, via the ZOOM liturgies to which we have become accustomed. Of course this is not the same as being together in church, with the particular music, drama and ritual of which St. James' is justly proud. Nonetheless it enables us to come together to worship, to reflect and to pray: you will find on the next page details of our Holy Week worship.

In addition, you may care to find time each day to be still, to rest consciously in the presence of God, and to offer to Jesus your love in response to his:

“Were the whole realm of nature mine, that were an offering far too small.
Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.”

Every blessing as we enter together into Passiontide,

Fr. Kevin
