

Liturgy at Home

St. James' Anglican Church

Fifth Sunday in Lent
March 17, 2024 | 9:00 am

Welcome

We acknowledge with gratitude and respect our presence on the ancestral, traditional and un-ceded territory of the x^wməθk^wəyəm (Musqueam), Sḵw̓x̓wú7mesh (Squamish), and sə́lilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh) First Nations.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy at Home", which continues to gather together a community of worship for those prevented for various reasons from being in church. Solemn Mass is celebrated in church at 10:30 am on Sundays. For weekday Mass (in church) and (online) Daily Office times, please see the Notices pages at the end of this bulletin.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 9:00 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca, 604-685-2532.

About St. James'

St. James' is an inclusive Christian community, worshipping in the Anglo-Catholic tradition. For more information, please see our website: www.stjames.bc.ca

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

A Reflection

The Third Station: Jesus falls the first time

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed
the world.

He made the stones that pave the roads of Zion
And well he knows the path we make him tread
He met the devil as a roaring lion
And still refused to turn these stones to bread,
Choosing instead, as Love will always choose,
This darker path into the heart of pain.
And now he falls upon the stones that bruise
The flesh, that break and scrape the tender skin.
He and the earth he made were never closer,
Divinity and dust come face to face.
We flinch back from his via dolorosa,
He sets his face like flint and takes our place,
Staggered beneath the black weight of us all
And falls with us that he might break our fall.

Opening Rite

INVOCATION

Gathering together on the ancestral, traditional and un-ceded territory of the x^wməθk^wəyəm (Musqueam), Sk̓wx̓wú7mesh (Squamish), and sə́lilwətał (Tseil-Waututh) First Nations, we meet

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

HYMN

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name!

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled against him.

Let us then renounce our wilfulness and ask his mercy by confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Wash me thoroughly from my wickedness
and cleanse me from my sin:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Make me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me:

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Cast me not away from your presence
and take not your holy spirit from me:

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and keep us in eternal life
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Most merciful God,

by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ,

you created humanity anew.

May the power of his victorious cross transform those who turn in faith to him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the Lord', for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

(Jeremiah 31:31-34)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

Wash me through and through from my wickedness
and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

Against you only have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight.

And so you are justified when you speak and upright in your judgement.

Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, a sinner from my mother's womb.

For behold, you look for truth deep within me,
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure;
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

Make me hear of joy and gladness, that the body you have broken may rejoice.

Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from your presence
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Give me the joy of your saving help again and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

(Psalm 51:1-13)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews.

So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

'You are my Son,
today I have begotten you';
as he says also in another place,
'You are a priest for ever,
according to the order of Melchizedek.'

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

(Hebrews 5:5-10)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

TRACT

Believe me when I tell you this:
if you keep my word, you will never taste death.

THE GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, 'Sir, we wish to see Jesus.' Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, 'The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.

'Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—"Father, save me from this hour"? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.' Then a voice came from heaven, 'I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.' The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, 'An angel has spoken to him.' Jesus answered, 'This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgement of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.' He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

(John 12:20-33)

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

HOMILY

Mother Amanda Ruston

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Let us affirm our faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

Though he was divine,
he did not cling to equality with God,
but made himself nothing.

Taking the form of a slave,
he was born in human likeness.

He humbled himself
and was obedient to death, even the death of the cross.

Therefore God has raised him on high,
and given him the name above every name:

that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bow,
and every voice proclaim that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Spiritual Communion

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: grant us thy peace.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

As we are unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at this time, meditate quietly for a moment on these words of Jesus from St. John 6:

"I am the Bread of Life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, whoever believes in me will never thirst."

Then, in union with the Body of Christ in every time and place, pray:

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus. There is room in my heart for thee.

HYMN

My song is love unknown,
My Saviour's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown,
That they might lovely be.
O who am I,
That for my sake,
My Lord should take Frail flesh and die?

Concluding Rite

your only Son suffered death upon the cross to bring the world salvation.
Accept the praise and thanksgiving to find in him a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope, and the assurance of sins forgiven.

Amen.

May the grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
+and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with us all evermore.
Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

AVE REGINA CAELORUM

Hail, Queen of Heaven, beyond compare, to whom the angels homage pay.

Hail, Root of Jesse, Gate of Light, which opened for the world's new day.

Rejoice, O Virgin unsurpassed, in whom our ransom was begun.
For all your loving children pray,
to Christ our Saviour and your Son.

Clergy Notes

This Sunday Passiontide begins. The liturgical mood changes, the crucifixes and images of the saints in church are veiled, our readings and hymns dwell more upon the self-giving of Jesus on the cross. As did the disciples then, so now we too turn with Jesus towards Jerusalem where his mission will be fulfilled. These coming days move us slowly but surely towards Palm Sunday of the Passion and Holy Week.

The liturgies of Palm Sunday and the Triduum (the Great Three Days) - Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Eve - are the most powerful of the church's year. They lead us through a whole gamut of highs and lows, joys and sorrows, as we share in the events leading up to the crucifixion of Jesus, his death and burial, the waiting, and then the joy of the resurrection.

- Next Sunday we shall celebrate with John our Bishop the joyful entry of Jesus into Jerusalem and then hear the dramatic reading of the Passion according to St. Mark, which takes us through the whole story up to the death and burial of Jesus.
- On Maundy Thursday we focus on Jesus, the one who serves, as he washes the disciples' feet at his last supper with them, and institutes the Eucharist, 'this is my body, this is my blood'. With the disciples we go with Jesus to the Garden of Gethsemane; there, where he will be betrayed, we are invited to watch with him in prayer.
- On Good Friday we celebrate with sorrow and love the Passion of the Lord. We hear tell of God's suffering servant in Isaiah and listen this time to the sombre chant of the Passion according to St. John. We offer solemn prayers for the church, the world, and those in need. As we ponder the overflowing depth of God's love for us revealed in Christ, we respond with our love, coming forward to touch or kiss the crucifix.
- In the dark of Easter Eve we gather to keep vigil, to light the new fire and the Paschal Candle, the symbol of the Risen Christ. The great Easter hymn of praise, Exultet, proclaims the Resurrection. We hear again the story of salvation, and then renew our baptismal covenant in the triumphant First Mass of Easter. This year we shall have the joy of celebrating the sacrament of Baptism at the Vigil and on Easter Morning.

I invite you to share in as much of this week's observance as you are able.

In preparation for this great Feast, the church also encourages us to consider the sacrament of reconciliation, sacramental confession. Your priests are here to serve you: please reach out to one of us if you would like to have spiritual conversation and/or make your confession.

With every blessing at this holy time,
Fr Kevin
