St. James' Anglican Church

Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost
November 9, 2025 | 9:00 am

Welcome

We acknowledge with gratitude and respect our presence on the ancestral, traditional and un-ceded territory of the x<sup>w</sup>məθk<sup>w</sup>əýəm (Musqueam), Sk̓wxwú7mesh (Squamish), and sə́lilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh) First Nations.

Welcome to this St. James' "Liturgy at Home", which continues to gather together a community of worship for those prevented for various reasons from being in church. Solemn Mass is now celebrated in church at 10:30 am on Sundays. For weekday Mass (in church) and (online) Daily Office times, please see the Notices pages at the end of this bulletin.

You are invited either to share in this Liturgy at 9:00 am on Sunday, via Zoom, or to use this as an aid to your prayers at home, drawing strength, we hope, from the knowledge that fellow-parishioners will be praying alongside you.

The Parish Intercession Lists, which are being kept up to date, are being prayed daily. Please make any requests to the Parish Office, office@stjames.bc.ca.

About St. James'

---

St. James' is an inclusive Christian community, worshipping in the Anglo-Catholic tradition. For more information, please see our website: www.stjames.bc.ca

VISION STATEMENT

Discovering the beauty of holiness in our lives and neighbourhood, by living a Christ-centred sacramental life rooted in the Anglo-Catholic tradition.

MISSION OBJECTIVES

- To be a beacon for all as a neighbourhood and destination church where we invite and welcome friends, family, and strangers into our midst;
- To deepen our life of prayer and formation in Christ;
- To develop relationships and fellowship in open, honest, and spiritual ways among parishioners, with our neighbours, and those in need;
- To pursue and practice justice and mercy for the imparting of the Kingdom of God within and beyond the Parish;
- To strive to maintain financial equilibrium, develop our reserves, and optimize the use of our assets to ensure the preservation of our sacred space and ministry from generation to generation, to the everlasting glory of God.

A Reflection

In taking the accounts of your life do not reckon by great distances, and by the periods of pleasure, or the satisfaction of your hopes, or the stating your desires: but let every intermedial day and hour pass with observation. He that reckons he hath lived but so many harvests, thinks, they come not often enough, and that they go away too soon. Some lose the day with longing for the night, and the night in waiting for the day...

We must with all arts of the Spirit seize upon the present, because it passes from us while we speak, and because in it all our certainty does consist. The old Greeks and Romans taught us the prudence of this rule: but Christianity teaches us the Religion of it. For he that by a present and a constant holiness secures the present, and makes it useful to his noblest purposes, he turns his condition into his best advantage, by making his unavoidable fate become his necessary religion.

Opening Rite

INVOCATION

Gathering together on the ancestral, traditional and un-ceded territory of the x<sup>w</sup>məθk<sup>w</sup>əyəm (Musqueam), Sk̓wx̓wú7mesh (Squamish), and səlilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh) First Nations, we meet

+In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

HYMN

To God be the glory,

who great things has done!

God so loved the world, freely sending the Son, who yielded his life an atonement for sin,

and opened the life-gate that all may go in.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE

Celebrant

'How often have I longed to gather your children, as a hen gathers her brood under her wings,' says the Lord,
'but you would not come to me.'

Let us as wayward children return to God and confess our sins.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts;
the whole earth is full of God's glory:
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Woe is me, for I am lost;
I am a person of unclean lips:
Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Your guilt is taken away, and your sin forgiven:
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God have mercy upon us,
pardon and deliver us from all our sins,
confirm and strengthen us in all goodness,
and keep us in eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Glory be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
that takest away the sin of the world,
have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sin of the world,
receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, +art most high in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Eternal God,
who caused all holy scriptures
to be written for our learning,
grant us so to hear them,
read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them,
that we may embrace and ever hold fast
the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Job.

'O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
O that with an iron pen and with lead
they were engraved on a rock for ever!
For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;
and after my skin has been thus destroyed,
then in my flesh I shall see God,
whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another.
My heart faints within me!

(Job 19:23-27a)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord; give heed to my cry;
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence;
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

Weigh my heart, summon me by night,
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I give no offence with my mouth as others do;
I have heeded the words of your lips.

My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law;
in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvellous loving-kindness,
O Saviour of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.

Keep me as the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings,

From the wicked who assault me,
from my deadly enemies who surround me.

(Psalm 17:1-9)

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter to the Thessalonians.

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

(2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17)

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia. He grants peace within your borders: he fills you with the finest wheat.
Alleluia.

THE GOSPEL READING

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

(Luke 20:27-38)

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

that you will turn the hearts of all to kindness and friendship.

Lord, in your mercy,

+Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord.

And may light perpetual shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

Amen.

Celebrant:

As we remember before God all victims of war and violence, especially those who lost their lives in the two World Wars,
in conflict since, and still today,
let us keep silence:

[2 Minutes]

They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old:
age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
we will remember them.

We will remember them.

Lord, strengthen our hearts, hands, and minds,
to work together for peace;
to see you in one another,
and to seek your kingdom above all things;
that your will may be done, and your Kingdom come, through Jesus Christ, the Lord of lords and King of kings.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion

---

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

AGNUS DEI

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world: grant us thy peace.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

As we are unable to receive the Blessed Sacrament at this time, meditate quietly for a moment on these words of Jesus from St. John 6:

"I am the Bread of Life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, whoever believes in me will never thirst."

Then, in union with the Body of Christ in every time and place, pray:

O come to my heart, Lord Jesus. There is room in my heart for thee.

HYMN

Take my love: my Lord I pour at thy feet its treasure store;
take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Concluding Rite

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray.
Gracious God,
your word to us is food indeed.
Receive all we offer you this day,
and let your loving-kindness be our comfort,
for the sake of Jesus Christ, your living Word.
Amen.

STEWARDSHIP ADDRESS

THE GRACE

God the Holy Trinity make us strong in faith and love, defend us on every side,
and guide us in truth and peace.
Amen.

May the grace of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
+and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
be with us all evermore.
Amen.

DISMISSAL

Let us bless the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

SALVE REGINA

Hail, Mary, mother and queen of tender mercy, our life, our comfort, and our hope, we hail thee.
From this foreign land, Eve's sons and daughters cry to thee.
So lost, so full of fear, we mourn, we grieve, we sigh from this tearful vale of exile.

Ah then, our help, our advocate and guide, turn now to us, the gaze of thine all loving-eyes, so full of mercy.
And Jesus, thy Son and Lord, thy womb's most blessed fruit, show him to us when we complete our sojourn.
O gentle, O loving, O beloved, O Virgin Mary.

Clergy Notes

Perhaps it's the time of year, but I have found myself contemplating death a lot more than usual. Not just death in general, but people who have died, existential questions around death, and (as we are all bound to think about) my own eventual death.

I am so grateful to belong to a tradition that has space and language and liturgy for these thoughts - like a container to safely process them in. Of course, that doesn't mean we have all the answers, and even when we think we have uncovered an answer to one thing, there is often a new mystery right around the corner. I love that Anglicanism has room for that too: life is full of ambiguity, and pretending we know the answers to all of life's mysteries only closes the door to the possibility of experiencing God in the little unexpected glimmers of revelation through the clouds of perplexity.

One thing I am certain of though, and that is our hope in Christ. Whatever death is, and whatever comes after death, I am certain that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ. Baptism binds us to Christ forever, and we are caught up in and redeemed by the power of Christ's life, death, resurrection and ascension. We often think of this as having implications for our existence after death, but in fact, it has just as much impact on our existence now. We are free to lean into our mortality, enjoying all the messiness and beauty of mortal life as God designed us to.

My prayer for all of us this week is that we may savour the little privileges of mortality: feeling the wind on our skin; tasting food; laughing with friends; allowing sleep - the 'little death' - to overtake us. And yes, to allow ourselves to contemplate a holy death, because it is only in doing so that we can live a holy life.

SEASON OF STEWARDSHIP – GROWING IN GENEROSITY

Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, who shines forever without change or shadow. + James 1:17

What does it mean to you that God is generous? How do you respond to hearing God described as lavish, bountiful, compassionate, extravagant? Throughout November, we will hear about and reflect on all aspects of giving and why St. James' endures as a place of open-handedness and hope. Intention cards and other materials are in the mail to parishioners and we ask that you prayerfully consider your giving, financial and otherwise, to our church community. Leah Postman, Chair, Stewardship Committee

STEWARDSHIP INTENTION CARDS

Intention cards are being mailed and will be hitting mailboxes soon! St. James' relies on generous and regular giving, and returning your intention card is vital to helping us plan for the following year. Our budgeted operating expenses for 2025 is $870,871. However, every good gift matters! As an Anglo-Catholic parish, we cherish the candles, lights, and incense that form part of our worship and prayer. Did you know we burn approximately $320.60 every month – in candles and incense? Your giving can tangibly support how we pray, that the fire of God's love may be kindled throughout our community. - Stewardship Committee
